Subject: URGENT - Practice Ice Instructions and Other Important Info -

Hi Skaters!

Important information:

1. We have made some changes in the groups to correct errors and fix some conflicts - please make sure that you re-check your schedule again so that you have the most up-to-date information. I would suggest that you re-print your schedule just before you leave to come to Colorado.
2. Maps will be posted of the rinks shortly on the website.

Practice Ice:

Practice ice selection will be available starting at 5:00 pm MDT on Sunday, July 15th.

You will need your name and your PIN number to select your practice ice sessions. Your PIN number was on your confirmation email as "AUTHORIZE ID/PIN".

Please make sure you have read my previous communication "What you should know about practice ice" - it is available at the link below as well as on the page where you can see your schedule.

To schedule your practice ice, please do the following:

Go to this link: <http://www.thesportscorp.org/SGA2007/schedules.html>

Scroll to figure skating and select "CLICK HERE TO VIEW COMPETITION SCHEDULE" highlighted in yellow.

Under the "Practice Ice" section, you will see a drop down menu for skater name. You will select your name and then click on the schedule button and then it will ask you for your pin number. You will enter your pin number and then you will be shown your schedule and will be given a drop down box of all the sessions that you qualify for based on your skating level and the events that you entered. You will be able to select up to the number of sessions that you pre-purchased. When you select a session, it will be added to your schedule.

Practice Ice selection will be available for initial selection and any changes you want to make until July 30th at 6:00 pm MDT. After that time, all selections, purchases, and changes must be done through the practice ice desk at the rink.

Should you have difficulties with scheduling your sessions, please contact me via email at lisa_landon@comcast.net

We hope you enjoy being able to select your own sessions to fit your preferences and your schedule!

We will see you in August!
